Numb. 5619

The Daily Courant.

Monday, October 26. 1719.

London, October 26.

Saturday arrived the Mail from Holland of Tuesday last.

From the Augsburg Courant, dated Oct. 30.

Madrid, October 9.

THE Court is at present at the Escurial, where they design to remain to the End of this Month. The Queen is slightly indisposed of a Cold; the King goes frequently a Hunting. It was thought the King would after his Departure from hence, dispose of the Employments taken from the Duke de Popoli, but this is not done yet. The Marquis de Scotti is expected from Paris at the Escurial, to confer with Cardinal Alberoni, and is afterwards to go another Way, as it is believed, to Holland, with a new Commission. The Portugueze Forces on the Frontiers desert in great Numbers, and most of them list among our Troops. The Complaint in this Place of the Scarcity of Money is greater than ever was known, all the Species being sent to the Frontiers, and out of the Kingdom, of which little returns back.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Oct. 31.

Turin, Oct. 10. The Marquis de Suza set out on the 4th Instant for Sicily, to serve, as it is said, in the Imperial Army under Count Mercy, at the Head of a Regiment of Dragoons which the King of Sardinia has given him. The Court is still at Rivoli, and it is believed will continue there some time longer, the Small Pox still carrying off a great Number of People. Three famous Lawyers are arrived here from Florence, who are to be employed by his Sardinian Majesty to digest the Codex Victorianus, which is a Collection of all Edicts, Ordinances, Statutes, and Customs, now in Force in his Majesty's Dominions, and to draw up a new Regulation for the Administration of Justice in Affairs Civil and Military, or relating to Commerce.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Oct. 31.

Heidelberg, Oct. 22. Mr. Haldane, the British Minister, had Audience of the Elector Palatine on the 18th Instant at Schwetzingen, and afterwards dined with his Electoral Highness. He made pressing Representations on this Occasion relating to the Affairs of his Commission, though only in general Terms. It is discoursed, the Elector has answered, that he had done nothing with relation to the Reformed, but what he had a Right to do as their Sovereign; Mr. Haldane hopes Things will take a better Turn, the Elector expressing a Readiness to do all that is possible to comply with the King of Great Britain's Demands; considering besides, that if he should insist upon his having a Power to [illegible] Constitutions of the Empire, and [illegible] he [illegible] Sovereign, the same Reason would hold good with other Princes for treating the Roman Catholicks in their Dominions as they think fit. A certain Jesuit some Days ago said in the Pulpit, that his Brethren had begun an Affair which never would come to any Good. All the religious Grievances drawn up at Ratisbon have been communicated to the Elector. M. Mecht the Prussian Minister, had an Audience on the 19th, concerning the same Subject; but M. Spina the Dutch Minister, is expecting further Instructions from Holland before he will have his Audience; as soon as he and the Minister of Hesse have had their Audiences, the Elector is to appoint Commissaries to enter into Conferences with all the said Ministers. In the mean while, the Roman Catholicks work with such Application at the Building of the new Church for the Reformed, that it plainly appears they do not design to restore that of the Holy Ghost.

Copenhagen, Oct. 24. The King is still in the Isle of Laland, from whence he is expected the latter End of this Week. Four British Men of War are arrived in this Road from the Baltick, and the rest are soon to follow. Letters from Norway say, that 4 of the Swedish Ships that were sunk near Stromstat, have been recovered and lie ready to sail hither; the Artillery that was on board them, has been carried to Marstrand. One of our Cruizers has brought hither 2 Swedish Princes, having many Swedish Officers on board; as also the Prince of Hesse Philipsdal: Some of the Officers being provided with Passports, they will soon be set at Liberty.

Hamburgh, Oct. 27. Letters from Lubeck advise, that Baron Knyphausen, the Prussian Minister, Brigadier Rantzau who is in the Service of the Duke of Holstein Gottorp, and a Minister of the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, are sailed on board a British Frigate for Schonen. Yesterday the Burghers assembled, and their Number was found compleat; they consented to certain Taxes, but about the Differences with the Emperour occasioned by the late Tumult, nothing was moved except that two Deputies should be sent to desire the King of Great Britain to interpose with the Emperour to procure that the said Affair may not be decided by an Imperial Commission.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Oct. 31.

Hamburgh, Oct. 27. Letters from Berlin say the Russian Privy Counsellor Tolstoy is recalled by the Czar: That he has already sent away his Baggage, and is only expecting the Return of the King of Prussia [illegible] The King of Denmark has ordered his Minister here to declare to the Magistrates of the City of Lubeck, that upon the Intercession of the Emperour and the King of Great Britain, he has resolved to give Orders to his Frigate which has been anchoring for some time near Travemunde the Port of that City, to sail from thence, under Condition that they take Care that no Contraband Goods be carried to Sweden.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Oct. 31.

Brussels, Oct. 26. The Marquis de Rubi, late Viceroy of Sardinia, is arrived here from Vienna, in his Way to Antwerp, to take Possession of the Government of the Citadel there, which the Emperour has conferred upon him. The Governour of Ostend has received Orders to arrest Effects on the Dutch Ships, on account of the two Ostend Ships seized by the Cruizers of the Dutch West India Company; and we hear that a Cruizer of Ostend has already carried into that Port, the Emmenes, a Zealand Ship, being on her Return from the Coast of Guinea, laden with Gold Dust, Elephants Teeth, &c. It is advised from Liege, that they have seized and carried to that Place about 100 Highwaymen and Incendiaries, the greater Part of whom have already been condemned to be burnt alive, broke on the Wheel, or hanged.

Hague, Oct. 31. 'Letters from good Hands at 'Madrid advise, that by Cardinal Alberoni's Discourse with a certain foreign Minister, it appeared 'that his Schemes were very much disconcerted by 'the Turn which the Affairs of the North have 'taken. The Ambassadour of this State at the 'Court of Spain writes, that Sig. Seguiera having 'received his Instructions from Lisbon, was preparing to leave Madrid the End of this Month, 'in order to come hither in the Quality of Envoy 'from his Portugueze Majesty. The Duke of Hamilton set out from Leiden a few Days ago for 'Paris. A Russian Minister has passed through 'this Place, to go and reside at Madrid: Prince 'Kutakin has at the same time sent his Son up into 'Germany upon some Commission. The Marquis 'Corsini, Envoy of Florence, set out from hence 'on Saturday last for Hanover.

London,

London, October 25.

Last Saturday Night arrived a Mail from France.

Paris, Nov. 1. 'M. de la Jonquiere has brought into Brest, two Ships which he has taken belonging to the Squadron of M. de Martinet, who has been some time in the Service of Spain in the West Indies: It is said the Cargo of these two Ships is to the Value of 11 or 12 Millions of Pieces of Eight.
